

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I feel that the Telephone Privacy law has help to release tensions generated towards telemarketing companies. It has also made me feel more comfortable answering calls to my home.